A wine should speak of the grapes from which it came. It should taste of the soil and the sun, the damp mornings and the cold nights. Wine is created by the land, not man. Man is the tool that refines, gives shape to the wine. The grape is what defines it.

"We would like to welcome you to our extended family. It is our hope that you will enjoy our wines, making them a part of the good times and laughter you share with family and friends, just as we do."

Joe & Melinda Laraneta & Family
